

CLOSE ENCOUNTERS WITH WILDLIFE - MUTUAL SURVIVAL IN SPRING 2010

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 31ST 7-8PM

BROWN COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY, LOWER LEVEL MEETING ROOMS A&B

Sponsored by the Friends of Brown County State Park

The purpose of the Friends of Brown County State Park is to collaborate with Brown County State Park to support:

- Conservation of Natural Resources
- Education of the Public
- Historical Preservation
- Natural & Cultural Interpretive Activities
- Scientific Research

- * Patti Reynolds and Laura Edmunds - expert raptor rehabilitators from Return to the Wild, will present an informative program that utilizes storytelling and natural history to convey important facts about how we relate to and can take care of nature and the environment.
- * This program is designed for EVERYONE - kids who bring things home (like baby bunnies), their parents, grandparents, baby-sitters - and all people who live, work and drive in and around Brown County and can encounter wildlife day to day.
- * Kids - Enter a drawing to win a bluebird box kit!
- * Adults - Enter a drawing to win a Zimmerman print!

Light refreshments

Need more info? Call 812-988-5240 or email programs@browncountystatepark.us.

See you March 31, Brown County Public Library!